PERSONAL APPEARANCES

Her success in golf and business has created a demand for Dana Rader to appear before many corporate, small and large business, religious and civic groups. She is very effective in combining the fundamentals of playing golf with the fundamentals of business and life.

Dana has appeared on the Golf Channel and Golf Academy Live, and has written articles and been featured in the following publications:

- Golf Magazine (Top 100 Teachers)
- Golf for Women (Top 50 Teachers)
- Golf Digest (Top 50 Instructors)
- Sports Illustrated (Big Play)
- Weekly golf tips in The Charlotte Observer
- Rock Solid Golf – A Foundation for a Lifetime, her first book published by Walkabout Press in 2002

Dana has been an instructor in the National Education Program of the LPGA in Scottsdale, AZ, and Daytona Beach, FL, an intensive training program for teaching professionals. She also has been honored as the LPGA's National Teacher of the Year and holds the rating of LPGA Master Professional.

Named Charlotte's Business Woman of the Year 2003-2004, Dana served as Executive-In-Residence for 2004-2005 at the McColl Graduate School of Business at Queen's University. She also has participated in Golf for Women's businesswomen's clinics in major cities such as Boston, Atlanta and Detroit.

Dana's strong faith and business principles (the mission statement for the school begins with "To Honor God.....") keep her personal appearance calendar busy throughout the year.

Call the School at 704.542.7635 for more information about availability and fees for having Dana appear at your function. See the Group and Private Instruction in the About Dana section of this website for the dates Dana is onsite for training sessions at the golf school.
